THE BAR COUNCIL OF INDIA ENCLOSURE I

New Delhi, the 7th January 1966

A. Amendment of rules of the Council

At the meeting of the Bar Council of India held on the 4th and 4th of December 1965 the following resolution was passed :—
Resolution No. 189/1965

In the rules of the Council in Part II, Chapter IV :— In rule 9 in lieu of the words "the Council" substitute the words "the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman of the Council"

ENCLOSURE II

B. The Executive Committee of the Bar Council of India has at its meeting dated 4th December 1965 approved the following rules effective from 1st January 1966.

I. Working days of the Council

1(a) Save as provided by sub-rule (b) of this rule and rule 4, the office of the Council shall ordinarily be open from 10 A.M. to 4-30 P.M. on all working days excepting Saturdays and on Saturdays from 10 A.M. to 1-30 P.M.

(b) During the period covered by the Summer Vacation of the Supreme Court of India, the office of the Council shall be ordinarily open on all days excepting Saturdays, Sundays and other holidays of the Supreme Court, during such hours as may be notified

2 The office of the Council shall ordinarily be closed during all Sundays and other holidays declared by the Supreme Court, and the Dussera and the Christmas Vacations of the Supreme Court. Provided that when necessary, a Sunday or other holiday may be had as a working day

3. A list of the holidays and the dates of the Dussera and the Christmas Vacations and hours of office shall ordinarily be sent to all State Bar Councils and to the Supreme Court of India for their information and for their being affixed on the Notice Boards of the State Bar Councils.

II. Rules on Retirement, Leave, Overtime payment

1 Retirement.—Members of the staff other than the Secretary and the Accountant shall retire on attaining the age of 60 years provided that the Executive Committee may continue any of them for a period not exceeding two years if it thinks fit

2. Leave.—(a) The staff of the Council shall ordinarily be permitted the following kinds of leave —

1. Casual Leave
2. Earned Leave
3. Compensatory Leave
4. Medical Leave
5. Extraordinary Leave

No member of the staff shall however be entitled to claim any leave as a matter of right

(b) (1) Casual Leave.—Casual leave may be availed of for not more than 12 days in a calendar year. Save as otherwise permitted by the Executive Committee such leave however shall not ordinarily be granted for more than 10 days at a time. The Executive Committee may permit casual leave to be combined with any other kind of leave or the vacations. Sundays or other holidays falling within the period of the leave or at the beginning or the end of it, shall not be taken into account for the purpose of calculation of the total number of days of Casual Leave

(2) Earned Leave.—(i) Members of the staff shall be entitled to a minimum earned leave of 1/14th of the period of duty during each calendar year.

(ii) In the case of a member of the staff not being permitted or not being able to avail himself of the benefit of leave during summer vacation he shall be entitled to an additional earned leave of 3/5ths of the total number of such days not availed of.

(iii) The Executive Committee may permit Earned Leave to be combined with any other holiday or any period covered by the vacation or any other kind of leave

(iv) For the purposes of calculation, a Sunday or a Public Holiday shall be deemed to be a day of duty excepting when a Sunday or a holiday falls within the period of leave granted to the member of the staff.

(v) Earned Leave shall not ordinarily be permitted to be accumulated for more than 180 days, nor shall such leave be granted ordinarily for a period of more than 120 days at a time

(vi) In the event of an employee resigning from service or attaining the age of superannuation, he shall be entitled to avail himself of the entire period of earned leave then due to him on accumulation within permissible limits and during the said period when he is on earned leave he shall be entitled to the same pay and allowances as he will be entitled to, if he is on duty

(3) Compensatory.—A member of the staff required to perform duty on a Sunday or a closed holiday may be given compensatory leave for the corresponding number of days or paid overtime allowance as may be decided upon by the Secretary at the rates provided for in these rules

(4) Medical Leave.—The members of the permanent staff shall ordinarily be eligible for 10 days medical leave in all for each completed year of service for which Medical certificate should be produced if called for. The Executive Committee may, however, grant medical leave for a longer period on production of a medical certificate.

(5) Extraordinary Leave.—Extraordinary leave may be granted to any member of the staff at the discretion of Executive Committee for such period and with or without pay as the Committee may decide in each particular case.

3. Vacation.—(a) Any member of the staff may be required to attend office or transact work connected with the office during any period covered by the Dussera and the Christmas Vacation. No member of the staff will be entitled to any overtime payment for work done during such days, during usual working hours

(b) The Secretary may with the permission of the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman permit any of the members of the staff to avail themselves of leave during the period covered by the Summer Vacation of the Supreme Court for a period not exceeding 21 days.

(c) The Secretary may avail himself of the Summer Vacation with the permission of the Chairman, and in his absence of the Vice-Chairman, for a period not exceeding 28 days

4 Overtime work on working days and holidays for staff other than the Secretary.—(a) No payment shall be made to any member of the staff for attendance at office or work done half an hour before the office opens, or within an hour after normal closing hour of the office or for any miscellaneous work whether on a working day any other day not involving more than an hour.

(b) (i) For work done beyond the time specified in rule 1 during working days or on other holidays not treated as a working day for the member concerned and not treated as compensatory leave under Rule 2b, payment shall be made at one and a half times the emoluments as would be payable on the 1st of the succeeding month

(ii) The word "emoluments" means and includes the salary and the dearness allowance, for the purpose of these rules

(iii) For the purposes of calculation every month shall be divided into 150 working hours.

(c) These rules shall be applicable only to permanent members of the staff. No overtime payment is admissible to other than permanent members of the staff
